

Letherhead Institute - Abraham Dixon Hall - Thursday, 13 July 2017
Please join us for a glass of wine from 7 pm
7.30 pm – Annual General Meeting

This will be followed at 7.45 pm by an
ILLUSTRATED TALK ON “GUILDFORD – from the SAXONS to MONTY PYTHON”

Non-members welcome with pre-booked ticket (Cost £5 includes LCA membership until March 2018)

Guildford, a Saxon town with a High Street dating from the time when Alfred the Great had a residence there. Then came the Normans and their castle, a flourishing wool trade that saw the building of the Guildhall and the Grammar School, fine inns, a 20th century cathedral and famous sons from Lewis Carroll to P G Wodehouse and an Archbishop of Canterbury to Monty Python’s Terry Jones.
