

The 10th ANNUAL KIRBY LECTURE
Friday, 28 September 2018
7.30 pm in the Abraham Dixon Hall at Letherhead Institute

ALEX BRUMMER

An experienced economic commentator, a multi award-winning journalist and the author of several books. Currently the City Editor of the Daily Mail since May 2000, he also writes in the Jewish Chronicle and the New Statesman. A highly regarded economics speaker, Alex Brummer delivers thought provoking speeches on a number of finance related issues such as the impact of Brexit on the UK, Europe and international economies.

Please send your application form to Mary Bursey at the Institute, together with your payment and a stamped addressed envelope. If no stamped addressed envelope is enclosed your tickets will be held in the LCA office for a limited period after which it will be assumed you are not able to come and the tickets will be released to another applicant.

✂-----

Please return this slip with a stamped addressed envelope to:

Mary Bursey, Kirby Event, The Institute, 67 High Street, Leatherhead, KT22 8AH

ALEX BRUMMER

I wish to book _____ places at £5

I enclose a cheque for £ _____ payable to "Leatherhead Community Association"

NAME

ADDRESS.....

.....POSTCODE.....

Telephone.....

E-mail