

BEATRIX POTTER ARTIST AND SCIENTIST IN SURREY

Saturday, 22 October 10.30 am

In the Abraham Dixon Hall at Leatherhead Institute

We're familiar with Beatrix Potter's Peter Rabbit and friends. However, during visits to her uncle, Sir Henry Roscoe at Woodcote Lodge, West Horsley, Beatrix regularly wandered in nearby woods studying and painting the fungi.

Fenella Harrison, who lives in Woodcote will introduce the young Beatrix in her scientific days, before she created the woodland creatures, who later dominated her work

£5 per person (includes refreshments)
(Advance booking essential)
